

Counseling Psychology Degree Plan (M. S. in Counseling Psychology)

The program in Counseling Psychology is a 48-hour program and is designed to offer specific training and preparation in the area of counseling psychology. Graduates of this program are prepared for positions in mental health intervention, prevention, and consultation. Licensure as a professional counselor and entrance into doctoral programs in Counseling Psychology are also options.

First Year: Fall Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 610 - Psychotherapy & Lab (3)
- PSYC 612 - Clinical Research Methods (3)
- PSYC 642 - Cognitive Assessment (3)
- PSYC 650 - Ethics & Issues (3)

Spring Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 657 - Intermediate Statistics (3)
- PSYC 660/645 - Clinical Assessment/Child & Adolescent Assessment (3)
- PSYC 682/647 - Advanced Psychopathology/Child & Adolescent Psychopathology (3)
- PSYC 690 - Practicum I (3)

Second Year: Fall Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 664 - Career Counseling for LPC in Texas (3)
- PSYC 692 - Practicum II (3)
- 6 hours of electives
- PSYC 631 - Human Life Cycle II (recommended) (3)
- PSYC 699 - Thesis (if planned) (3)

Spring Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 692 - Practicum II (3)
- 9 hours of electives
- PSYC 699 - Thesis (if planned)