CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION TO TEACHER EDUCATION
Before taking more than 6 hours of any combination of EDUC, EACH, SPED or READ classes, a student must first be admitted to the Teacher Education Program.
To be admitted to the Teacher Education Program, a student must:
1. Complete and submit an application for admission into the Teacher Education Program;
2. Complete at least 60 semester hours of credit;
3. Have a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.7;
4. Complete 9 hours of English if elementary or middle school major; complete 12 hours of English if secondary or all-level major; no grade lower than a "C" accepted;
5. Pass all three sections of the Texas Higher Education assessment (THEA) test, with a score on the reading section of 260 or higher and core on the math section of 240 or higher and a score on the writing section of 220 or higher;
6. Have three written recommendations from faculty members who are familiar with the student's work and can discuss the student's potential as a teacher;
7. Complete an interview with the Teacher Education Admissions and Review Committee;
8. Receive approval from the Teacher Education Admissions and Review Committee.

Any exemptions or modifications to the above requirements due to special circumstances must be requested through the chair of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction. All requests will be reviewed and must be approved by the Teacher Education Admissions and Review Committee. In addition, admission to teacher education is not the final step in the process. In order to remain in the program, the prospective teacher must continue to meet the GPA requirement (2.7). Approval to take Education Block classes (411/412 and 431/432) and to enroll in student teaching must be obtained from the Teacher Education Admissions and Review Committee before enrolling in those classes.
