

Guidelines for submitting a book proposal to Leafwood Publishers

Leafwood Publishers publishes Christian books. Please visit our website to see the types of books we produce. <http://www.leafwoodpublishers.com>. Leafwood Publishers is not associated with any certain denomination.

To submit a book proposal to Leafwood Publishers, please supply the following materials in electronic format.

1. A query letter telling us what the book is about, for whom it is written, what distinguishes it from other books currently available on the subject, how long it is, and what your qualifications are for writing the book. We also ask that you tell us if you are submitting your material simultaneously to another publisher.
2. A prospectus, table of contents, and an introduction and sample chapter. All manuscript material should be typed and double-spaced. We will request a copy of the disk only if the manuscript is accepted for publication.
3. An author vita or resume.

We prefer that proposals be submitted via email. Paper copies submitted by mail are accepted but cannot be returned.

We do not publish poetry, children's books, fiction, autobiographies, or cookbooks.

Note: To submit your proposal, place this wording in your subject line --
Book Proposal For Leafwood Publishers.
