

Abilene Christian University Press

Guidelines for Submitting a Book Proposal

To submit a book proposal to ACU Press, please supply the following materials in electronic format.

The title of the proposed volume.

The Table of Contents of the proposed volume.

A list of and full publication information for any material that is to be included in the proposed volume that has already been published. Please identify how this material fits into the book.

The current status of the manuscript and the proposed submission date.

A twenty-five word description of the book, and a 250 word summary identifying the project's subject, thesis, method, scope, limitations, intended audience, and potential significance.

The book's introduction and at least two sample chapters.

A list of three to five scholars who would likely provide an endorsement of the book.

A list of five scholarly journals that should review the book.

A current resume, listing education, all academic and professional positions, and major academic publications (peer-reviewed books and articles).

We prefer that proposals be submitted via email. Paper copies submitted by mail are accepted but cannot be returned.

We do not publish poetry, children's books, fiction, autobiographies, or cookbooks.

To submit your proposal, place this wording in your subject line: Book Proposal For ACU Press

Please use this email address:

Dr. C. Leonard Allen, Director
manuscriptsubmissions@groupmail.acu.edu

1648 Campus Court
Abilene, Texas 79601