FALL 2018
Oxford, England

Join resident director Jacqueline Morrison for the adventure of a lifetime in Oxford. Jacqueline received her BA from ACU and her MA in British imperial history from Oxford Brookes University. She has worked with the ACU in Oxford program since 2003 and loves watching students broaden their horizons through travel, learning, and living in the local community.

Dr. Stephanie Hamm is an associate professor of social work. Prior to coming to ACU in 2008, her practice was in clinical social work. She teaches in many areas of social work including human behavior, diversity, spirituality, and research. Research interests include race, gender, and spirituality.

Program Features
- An extended excursion to Spain as well as other planned class-related excursions that may include London, Stonehenge, Warwick Castle, Canterbury, Whitby, Bath and Dover.
- Transportation from Abilene to Oxford and back to DFW.
- International service-learning opportunities including work with local churches.
- Great location in fashionable North Oxford. Local shops and a first-rate market are nearby.
- Student housing includes dorm rooms, bathrooms, and kitchens. Linens and a towel are also provided.
- At least one long weekend and a weekend break for personal travel. Students are also encouraged to speak with our travel agent about extending their trip at the program's conclusion to allow for additional personal travel.
- Medical and travelers' insurance included for the duration of the program.

Application
Acceptance to the ACU in Oxford program is based on a variety of factors including:
- Completed application packet with satisfactory reference forms.
- Availability of space.
- $250 non-refundable application fee.
- Completion of at least two semesters on campus.
- Academic record and interests, a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 as of date of application and up to date of departure.
- Students must be in good standing with ACU (no probation of any kind) as of date of application and up to date of departure.

Note: Consideration also will be given to a student's suitability for participation in a study abroad program. Apply before October 28th to save $50 on the application fee!
