

COVID-19 and the Department

Students and Alumni: As we send out this Newsletter, it is of course the first time ACU and the Department have taught all our classes online for half the semester. Summer I is also online, but we look forward to seeing our graduating seniors in early August for our rescheduled Commencement here on campus!

As I talk to incoming freshman via email and phone, I reassure them God will always protect and guide us. That is also a message our current students know. On this first page we have included pictures of two majors studying at home and continuing to prepare for their future. That is also why included in the back pages of this Newsletter we have posted information about student opportunities, internships, and employment.

Finally, the Department continues to move forward, and is pleased to announce in this Newsletter the addition of a scholarship for pre-law students, the David Ricard Scholarship, and a listing of students involved in this year's Undergraduate Research Festival (it moved to an online format).

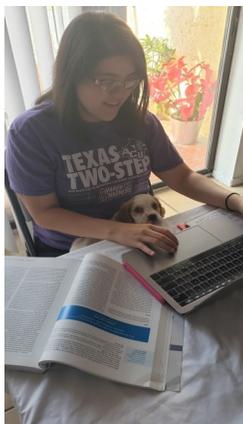

David Glenn Rickard Memorial Scholarship

The Department is pleased to announce that an endowed scholarship has been established in memory of David Glenn Rickard. David graduated from ACU in 1987, and from the University of Oklahoma School of Law. He lived in Houston with his family and was Claims Counsel at First American Title Insurance Company, until his passing in 2016. Scholarship recipients must be junior or senior classification, a political science major, pre-law, and have a minimum GPA of 2.75. This scholarship will first be awarded for School Year 21-22.

Faculty News

Chris Riley presented a paper co-authored by Andy Little at the Academy of Legal Studies in Business Regional Conference entitled, “New Challenges Arising from the University Employee’s Duty to Report Sexual Misconduct”. Dr. Riley also presented a paper at the Texas Higher Education Law Conference entitled, “Not Just a Private Matter: Required Sexual Misconduct Reporting for Faculty and Staff at Faith-Based Universities.”

Dr. Mel Hailey was a panelist at the 2020 Law-Related Education Conference on January 24-25 at the Jake Pickle Research Center of the University of Texas in Austin. He joined with Law-Related Education scholars to discuss “must watch” cases from the 2019-2020 term of the U.S. Supreme Court. Dr. Hailey also presented in a session “Is this anyway to elect a President?” He discussed a presidential selection process where individual candidates create their own campaign organization, strategies, fund-raising apparatus, platform, and vision while the roles of the national parties as organizations diminish in importance.

Study Abroad (and in Washington, D.C.)

A semester abroad is one of the most impactful educational experiences students can have. In addition to ACU's various study abroad sites in which sophomores typically enroll, for over 40 years the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities has operated Christian-based semester abroad programs around the world in Oxford, Jordan, Uganda, and Northern Ireland. They also operate professionally-focused domestic programs in Washington, D.C. (politics), Los Angeles (film), and Nashville (music). These programs are led by experienced full-time directors and have a strong reputation for academic rigor, Christian faith integration, and operational excellence. The courses also transfer to ACU. See www.bestsemester.com.

Southern Regional Pi Sigma Alpha Student Research Conference

Students are invited to share their research with their peers by participating in the Southern Regional Pi Sigma Alpha Student Research Conference. PSA is the honor society for POLS students. The conference is held each February, and the deadline for submissions is early each January. Students exploring topics across political science are welcome to submit proposals in the many subfields that make up the discipline (American Politics, International Relations, Political Philosophy, Public Policy, etc.) Participants will receive detailed feedback on their papers through panel discussions. Conference participants pay no registration fee and are provided breakfast and lunch.

Congressional Internship Opportunities

Many ACU students work at their local district office or the Washington, D.C. office of their Congressman. Rep. Jodey Arrington (TX-19) is looking for an ACU intern for every semester and summer. If you or anyone you know (and of any major) are interested, please contact Rep. Arrington's either office or talk with Dr. Coates.

Major Scholarships, including Fulbright Scholarships

The ACU Office of Major Scholarships offers assistance for students interested in preparing (early!) for Truman, Marshall, Fulbright, Rhodes, etc. scholarships. See that Office or Dr. Coates for more information. The Department of POLS & CJ has recently had two students and one professor receive Fulbright's. Two of the activities you will want to consider beyond the B.A.-required language study is participation in a study abroad program and also taking the two courses at ACU to qualify for the TESOL teaching certificate.

International Rescue Committee, Abilene

The IRC in Abilene regularly accepts internship applications for the summer and fall semesters. An internship with the IRC provides professional experience with a renowned international non-profit. IRC accepts interns from all majors and backgrounds to work in the case management, economic empowerment, immigration, and development departments. IRC requests a 12 hour per week commitment from each student. Apply several weeks prior to the semester to intern. Training is required.

MSC SCONA is an annual collegiate conference at Texas A&M University in February that brings together delegates from across the nation and the world. MSC SCONA discusses a topic of national and global importance, allowing delegates to interact with academic scholars, professionals, and well-known public figures. Delegates participate in small group "roundtables" led by a subject matter expert "facilitator" and work together to create a policy paper. Prior to the conference, students may opt to participate in the International Strategic Crisis Negotiation

Exercise. The ISCNE is a diplomatic simulation produced by the U.S. Army War College, which Texas A&M University hosts. Student delegates are divided into seven teams—each representing a nation-state—and work with a USAWC Fellow, who serves as their mentor. Each of the delegations represent a nation or interested global actor at a simulated peace conference facilitated by the "United Nations." MSC SCONA and ISCNE will take place in February 2021. Registration will close in early February. Cost of the conference is $100.
